

White 50% contours mark empirical BLS recovery after local count-weighted smoothing; grey cells have little injection support.